

Contents

Preface	vii
Typical Course Structure	xi

SECTION 1: Introduction to Value Education

1. Understanding Value Education	3
2. Self-exploration as the Process for Value Education	14
3. Basic Human Aspirations and their Fulfilment	28
4. Understanding Happiness and Prosperity—Their Continuity and Programme for Fulfilment	42

SECTION 2: Understanding the Harmony at Various Levels

5. Understanding the Human Being as Coexistence of the Self and the Body	59
6. Harmony in the Self—Understanding Myself	71
7. Harmony of the Self with the Body—Understanding Self-regulation and Health	92
8. Harmony in the Family—Understanding Values in Human–Human Relationships	105
9. Harmony in the Society—Understanding Universal Human Order	139
10. Harmony in Nature—Understanding the Interconnectedness, Self-regulation and Mutual Fulfilment	166
11. Harmony in Existence—Understanding Coexistence at Various Levels	188

SECTION 3: Implications of the Right Understanding

12. The Basis for Universal Human Values and Ethical Human Conduct	211
13. Professional Ethics in the Light of Right Understanding	220
14. Holistic Development towards Universal Human Order	230

15. Vision for Holistic Technologies, Production Systems and Management Models	237
16. Journey towards Universal Human Order—The Road Ahead	246

SECTION 4: Annexures

Annexure A: What is Basic Aspiration?	259
Annexure B: Activities of the Self	263
Annexure C: Sanskar	265
Annexure D: Process of Understanding	267
Annexure E: Universal Human Values	270
Annexure F: Socially Relevant Projects	275
Annexure G: Objective Type Questions and Answers	277
Annexure H: Viva Voce Questions and Answers	291
Practical Sessions	296
Model Test Papers for Practice	308
Glossary	314
Bibliography	325
Index	329