PREFACE

Pharmacology is the dynamic subject for pharmacy students. So many new chapters are added in this edition as per PCI. All the diagrams are imposed and computerized. The headings are given in different colours to make easy capture for the students.

Learning objectives are given in the beginning of every chapters, so as the students should concentrate more on those points. Unnecessary details are excluded. All the diagrams are made simple and colourful so as the students can easily understand the subject.

Every care has been taken to make the book free from the errors, but absolute perfection may not be there. Hence, error if any, may please be communicated to us.

We are thankful to Dr. Nagesh Simhadri, Assistant Professor, Tagore Medical College and Hospital, Chennai, for nice, simple computerized pictures.
